All desirous candidates may refer to the following clarifications before filling their application form:

Issue 1: Error message received a "G-category-examinations application is not allowed on this profile"

I/1575617/2023

This error is generated when the application for G-category examination is being filled up from the CB profile. The Customs Broker cannot login using their own credentials and fill the application form on behalf of their employees.

As mentioned in User Manual for G-category examination, every H-card holder who wishes to apply for the aforesaid examination needs to create a self CBLMS Login and then fill the application Form using his/her respective CBLMS login credentials.

Issue 2: What to fill in the field CBLMS ID of the Customs Broker of the application form and where to find it.

Every Customs Broker once registered on CBLMS portal has been assigned a unique CBLMS ID which looks like 2023MUMBO0001. Hence, every H-card holder who wishes to apply for the aforesaid examination needs to fill the CBLMS ID of their employer (Customs Broker). This CBLMS ID may be found out by entering the PAN card details or name of their Customs Broker on the link https://cblms.gov.in/search_cb_detail and mention the same in their application form.

Issue 3: Can H-card holder of any other Customs Commissionerate other than Mumbai Customs Commissionerate apply for the aforesaid examination.

Only H-card holders registered/ licensed in Mumbai Customs Commissionerate can apply for the aforesaid examination.

Issue 4: where to upload self-declaration on the number of attempts applicant has availed of.

Field marked as "Any Other Relevant Document"

Issue 5: Where to upload Aadhaar Card.

Attention is invited to Regulation 13 (3) of CBLR, 2018 which stipulates that an employed person by Customs Broker shall possess the Aadhaar number issued to him/her. Hence, applicants are required to present their Aadhaar card as & when required to the satisfaction of competent authority. The Aadhaar card should have been issued before the date of issuance of this Public Notice.

NOTE:

- i. All the documents uploaded on portal/submitted through Sevottam should be self-attested at the time of submission.
- ii. All the documents have to be submitted along with the application form between 01.12.2023 to 30.12.2023 upto 06:00 PM. Applications received after the stipulated date and time shall be summarily rejected.
